Editorial Review

Review

“This new book on surgical oncology has a unique format, with each chapter starting with learning objectives and ending with salient points and questions. ... The audience includes general surgery residents and practicing surgeons who desire to gain in-depth knowledge in the treatment of solid malignancies. ... It will be particularly useful for general surgery or surgical oncology board certification preparation.”
(Hisakazu Hoshi, Doody's Book Reviews, May, 2015)
