Editorial Review

Review

"Blake expands her "True" series (after True North) and continues to write sharp, deep characters that are refreshing and personable. Devon and Simon's story is romance at its core, with an enticing edge of two strong-willed people who overcome personal histories and fears to make it all work. A great entry to the series, which grows better with this addition." (Library Journal on True Devotion)

"One of my favorite aspects of True Devotion was the depth of emotional intimacy shared by the main characters...Add in humor, fun and flirty banter, erotic role-play, and a great secondary cast of characters, and you can see why True Devotion was a riveting romantic read!" (A Bookish Escape)
