Oil Painting Secrets from a Master: Prominent Artist / Teacher David A. Leffel Shares His Secrets for Making Professional-Quality Paintings By Linda Cateura

Some of the most popular art instruction books ever written have been based on student notes culled over the years from actual workshop sessions, with all their power and immediacy - and with practical, on-to-one contact between student and teacher. This is such a book. For more than two years, Linda Cateura has pursued teacher / artist David A. Leffel, notebook in hand, as he critiqued the work of students. Linda Cateura's succinct notes capture his insights, philosophy, painting hints, and general comments.

Leffel's classic, painterly, twentieth-century old master style, much in the manner of Rembrandt or Chardin, affords ample illustration of the ideas expressed - through his many paintings, details, demonstrations, and diagrams, almost all in color.

No matter what your level of ability, there is something here to apply to your own work, ideas that will cause you to rething your own ways of painting, hints to save you effort, or solutions to persistent painting problems.

As a university student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
