The Other Side of Heaven By John H. Groberg

Based on the missionary experiences of Elder John H. Groberg, The Other Side of Heaven tells the amazing story of his three-year mission in the South Pacific. Not understanding the language and lonely for the world he left behind, John faces suspicion, distrust, typhoons, rats, and other perils of man and nature as he reaches out to the people of Tonga. His faith is eventually rewarded as he is able to witness miraculous healings and develop lasting friendships with the Tongan people. Originally titled In the Eye of the Storm, the book was retitled after it was adapted into a major motion picture. A faith-promoting story for the whole family! Unabridged, includes 5 CDs.

Editorial Review

About the Author

John H. Groberg was called to serve in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in its First Quorum of the Seventy in April 1976. Since that time, he has served in assignments all over the globe, from the islands of the South Pacific to Argentina to Mongolia. Prior to his call, he was engaged in the real estate development and construction business. Elder Groberg and his wife, Jean, began serving in 2005 as president and matron of the LDS Idaho Falls Temple. They are the parents of eleven children.
