Because ER nurses need to think fast and act fast...

Fast Facts for the ER Nurse is an orientation guide and reference, designed specifically for new ER nurses and the preceptors responsible for their orientation. The chapters provide a brief overview of equipment, treatments, and drugs used to manage common disorders and conditions frequently seen in the ER. Critical information presented in each chapter includes disorder definitions, signs and symptoms, interventions, and critical thinking questions.

With this guide, nurses can get the information they need fast in bullet-point lists. Each chapter is conveniently organized alphabetically by disease and disorder for quick access. The book serves as an organized, reliable, and thorough ER guide, ensuring a structured approach to orientation. All new ER nurses and their preceptors will find this book to be a reference they cannot do without.

Key topics covered include:

- Cardiovascular Emergencies
- Disaster Response Emergencies
- Infectious Disease Emergencies
- Mental Health Emergencies
- Shock and Multisystem Trauma Emergencies
- Substance Abuse and Toxicologic Emergencies
- And many more!

About the Author

Jennifer R. Buettner, RN, is a full time Registered Nurse at Jasper Memorial Hospital in McDonough, GA. She has nine years of ER Experience and 3 years of experience precepting new graduate nurses and new employees in the ER. Jennifer is Certified in ACLS, PALS, TNCC, and as a Nurse Preceptor (Rockdale Medical Center/2005).. She won the Faculty Award for the graduate who "has achieved excellence in both the academic and clinical settings and who best exemplifies the total integration of program philosophy to professional performance" (5/2002). She has developed an ER Orientation Packet and Education Course for a local hospital. Her proposed book comes from her inability to find an orientation manual that was sized and priced reasonably enough for Hospital ERs to purchase in sufficient quantities to provide all preceptors and all new ER Nurses. Jennifer has applied to take the Certified Emergency Nurse (CEN) Exam and plans to earn this important credential prior to the publication of her book.
