Editorial Review

Review

"[With Sons] Buck has enriched her wide canvas." --New York Times

"[Buck] did for the working people of twentieth-century China something of what Dickens had done for London's nineteenth-century poor." --Hilary Spurling, author of Pearl Buck in China

From the Author

"Now Sons, of course, is a purely Chinese book. It is modeled on the plan of the orthodox Chinese novel, the material is altogether Chinese, the characters are less like ourselves than in the first book [The Good Earth], and the situations are medieval to the American mind."

--From a lecture by the author

About the Author
