Unexpected: A Felony Romance Series Novella By Jeana E. Mann

Karly Eriksson's past brims with painful secrets better left forgotten. Determined to make a better life for herself and her little sister, Karly has her eyes on the future, but misfortune greets her at every turn. When Karly's best friend invites her to underground Felony Bar, Karly looks forward to a night free from the complications of her past and a chance to forget her problems. Instead, she finds an unexpected attraction for Randy Mackenzie, head of security. Randy is dangerous and intense with a body made for sin. Everything about him screams bad boy, from his tattoos to the wicked scar on his neck, and that's the last thing she needs in her life. Randy lives his life in the shadows, but he yearns for the light. Karly, with her bright smile and effusive personality, is like a ray of sunshine, illuminating the darkness of his world. Still reeling from an unforeseen breakup, Randy has his emotions on lockdown, unwilling to show how badly he's hurt. When he drives Karly home after a night of revelry at Felony, he doesn't intend to sleep with her, but they have more in common than they know, starting with their broken hearts. After one kiss, Randy and Karly are willing to forget their problems for a night of passion and lust that can never be repeated. This is a novella in the Felony Romance series. Although this book can be read alone, it is part of the Felony Romance series and intended to be read after Intoxicated and as a prequel to Vindicated. Warning: This book is intended for readers who enjoy sexy bad boys, rock music, and steamy love scenes.
